DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's remarks filed 7/28/03 have been entered and carefully considered. Applicant's arguments are not found persuasive of patentability for reasons set forth herein below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
3. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Cole (6444214), as set forth in the previous action.

Applicant appears to argue that the polymer of Cole dissolves instead of dispersing. However, Cole specifically teaches "water dispersible polymers (title and abstract)." Moreover, Cole uses the same polymers as applicant, therefore, the same polymers will behave (either dissolve or disperse) in the same manner.

Applicant argues that the instant invention differs from Cole because Cole utilizes additives such as wetting agents and plasticizers. This argument is not commensurate in scope with the claims of the present invention because the claims do not exclude the possibility of additives in the water dispersible polymer composition. Moreover, applicant's claims specifically require additives (claim 9). Said rejection is maintained from the last action.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
